Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico:

Section 1.-- The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue and sell, all at once or from time to time, bonds of the Government of Puerto Rico in a principal amount that shall not exceed three hundred and four million dollars ($ 304,000,000), in order to defray the cost of the necessary public works and improvements itemized below, including the acquisition of any necessary land or rights thereon, and equipment therefor, to draw up plans and specifications for the administration and management of public works and improvements, the cost of the sale of the bonds and the notes issued in advance thereof, and any other necessary expense in connection with the acquisition or construction of such works and improvements, and the costs related to the public financing program of the Government of Puerto Rico.

Works and improvements financed by this bond issue shall have a useful life of five (5) or more years and operating expenses shall not be included in the costs to be financed through this bond issue.

The works and improvements and the costs of the sale of the bonds to be financed under this Act and the estimated amounts of the bonds' proceeds to be applied to each one of said works and improvements and costs, listed according to the highest expense item, are the following:

- I. Transportation facilities, including repaving, improvement, and repair of more than five hundred and eighty-one (581) kilometers of highways and roads in the municipalities of

Adjuntas, Aguadilla, Aguas Buenas, Aibonito,
Arecibo, Barranquitas, Bayamon, Canovanas,

Penuelas, Ponce, San Sebastian, Utuado,
Villaba and Yauco.	$ 106,000,000
II. Completion of Phase II of Route 66.	$ 89,000,000
III. Repaving, improvements and repair of various sections of highways PR-3 and PR-53.	$ 26,500,000
IV. Municipal Works and Improvements.	$ 25,000,000
V. Capital Works and Improvements.	$ 15,000,000
VI. Costs necessary for the Issue of 2011 Bonds.	8,500,000
VII. Reserve for the payment of interest on the bonds to be financed.	$ 34,000,000
Total	$ 304,000,000

With regard to the acquisition and construction of the public works and improvements, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to pay all those costs incurred in connection with the issue of bonds and notes authorized by this Act, including costs related to insurance, letters of credit or other instruments used to reduce financing costs. Any discount, charge for commitment or syndication, or any similar charge payable for the issue of bonds and notes shall be included in the computation of the price or prices for which said bonds and notes may be sold, pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Section 2.--

- (a) The bonds to be issued from time to time under the provisions of this Act, as well as any other detail related thereto, shall be authorized through a resolution or resolutions to be adopted by the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by the Governor. Said bonds will be designated as "Public Improvement Bonds of the Government of Puerto Rico for the Year 2011."
- (b) The bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this Act shall be dated, and shall mature on a date or dates that shall not exceed thirty (30) years from their date or dates (except for bonds related to public housing, which shall mature not later than forty (40) years from their date or dates), and will accrue interest at a rate or rates that shall not exceed those legally authorized at the time the bonds are issued, at the option of the Secretary of the Treasury, they may be redeemable before maturity, may be sold with or without premium, shall be of such denomination and in such form, with interest coupons or registered, or both, shall have such registration and conversion privileges, shall be executed in such a form, shall be payable in such places within or without Puerto Rico, and shall contain such other terms and conditions as provided by the authorizing resolution or resolutions.
- (c) The bonds authorized by this Act may be sold all at once or from time to time, in public or private sale, and for such price or prices not lower than the price legally established at the time they are issued, as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury with the approval of the Governor to be most convenient to the best interests of the Government of Puerto Rico.

- (d) When any official whose signature or facsimile thereof appears on any bond or coupon authorized under this Act ceases to hold office before the delivery of said bonds, said signature or facsimile shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient, it being deemed for all purposes as if such official had remained in office until such delivery. Furthermore, any bond or coupon may bear the signature or facsimile of those persons who, at the time said bond is executed, are the proper officials to sign it, but who, on the date of the bond, were not holding such office.
- (e) The bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments under the laws of Puerto Rico.
- (f) The bonds authorized by this Act may be issued as coupons or in registered form, or both, as determined in the authorizing resolution or resolutions, and provisions may be made for the registration of any bonds or coupons as to principal only, as well as to principal and interest, and for the reconversion of any registered bonds into coupon bonds, as to principal and interest.

Section 3.-- The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, with the approval of the Governor, to negotiate and execute with any bank, investment institution or any other financial institution, such loan agreements, purchase agreements or other financing agreements needed for the sale of the bonds or of the notes in advance of bonds authorized to be issued in Section 5 of this Act, under such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be most convenient for the best interests of the Government of Puerto Rico.

Section 4.-- The good faith, credit and taxing power of the Government of Puerto Rico are irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of interest on the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay the principal and interest on such bonds as they mature, from any funds available for such purposes in the Treasury of Puerto Rico in the fiscal year in which such payment is required, and the provisions of this Act concerning the payment of the principal and interest on such bonds shall be deemed a continuing appropriation for the Secretary of the Treasury to make such payments, even if no specific appropriations are made for such purpose. Said payments shall be made pursuant to the provisions of the laws of Puerto Rico which regulate the disbursement of public funds.

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to include in the authorizing resolution or resolutions the commitment which the Government of Puerto Rico hereby enters into, and it shall be stated on said bonds that the good faith, credit and taxing power of the Government of Puerto Rico are thus pledged.

Section 5.-- The Secretary of the Treasury, by resolution approved by the Governor, is hereby authorized to borrow money and issue notes of the Government of Puerto Rico in advance of the bond issue, at any time, or from time to time, payable solely from the proceeds of said bonds. Said notes shall be designated as "Notes in Advance of Bonds of the Government of Puerto Rico," and it shall be stated thereon that they are issued in advance of such bond issue.

Said notes, including any renewals or extensions thereof, shall be dated, may be issued from time to time with a maturity that may not exceed five (5) years from the first date of issue, shall bear interest at such rate that shall not exceed that which is legally authorized at the time they are issued, and may be redeemable before their maturity at the option of the Secretary of the Treasury, and shall be executed and may be sold at public or private sale at such price or prices that are not less than the price established by law at the time they are issued, and shall contain such other terms and conditions as provided in the authorizing resolution or resolutions adopted by the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by the Governor.

Section 6.-- The good faith, credit and taxing power of the Government of Puerto Rico are irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of the interest on any note issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay interest on the notes as they mature, from any funds available in the Treasury of Puerto Rico for such purpose during the fiscal year in which said payment is required. The provisions contained in this Act with regard to the payment of interest on the notes in advance of the bond issue shall be deemed to be a continuing appropriation for the Secretary of the Treasury to make the payments, even if no specific appropriations are made for such purposes.

Pursuant to the provisions of this Act, the Secretary of the Treasury will issue bonds sufficiently in advance and in the amount needed to provide the funds required to pay the principal of the notes as they mature and become payable, and apply the proceeds of the bond issue to the payment of said notes.

Any payments made with respect to the notes in advance of the bond issue shall be made according to the provisions of the laws of Puerto Rico that regulate the disbursement of public funds.

Section 7.-- The proceeds of the sale of the notes and bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (other than the proceeds of the bonds required for the payment of the principal of such notes) shall be covered into a special fund denominated the "Public Improvement Fund for 2011," and shall be disbursed according to the statutory provisions that regulate the disbursements of public funds, and for the purposes provided herein. The proceeds of the bond issue stated in subsections I, II, and III of Section 1 of this Act shall be appropriated to the Department of Transportation and Public Works. The proceeds of the bond issue stated in subsection IV of Section 1 of this Act shall be appropriated to the Infrastructure Financing Authority. The proceeds of the bond issue stated in subsection V of Section 1 of this Act shall be appropriated as follows: the sum of seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($ 7,500,000) for public work and improvement projects identified by the Senate of Puerto Rico through joint resolution and the sum of seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($ 7,500,000) for public work and improvement projects identified by the House of Representatives of Puerto Rico through joint resolution. The proceeds of the issue shall be deposited in the "Public Improvement Fund for 2011," to be kept at the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico and disbursed in accordance with the corresponding certifications.

Section 8.-- The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to make provisional advances from any funds available in the Treasury of Puerto Rico, to be applied to defraying the cost of the public works authorized to be financed with the proceeds of the sale of the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act. The Secretary of the Treasury shall reimburse any provisional advance made, out of the first moneys available in the Public Improvement Fund for 2011.

Section 9.-- The Secretary of the Department of Transportation and Public Works (DTOP, Spanish acronym) and the Infrastructure Financing Authority (IFA) are hereby authorized to enter into agreements with the municipalities, provided that the municipality has trained technical personnel and the proper equipment to carry out the works and improvements authorized by this Act. In its default, the Secretary of the DTOP or the Executive Director of the IFA shall transfer to the municipality the corresponding portion of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act, to defray the cost of the works and improvements authorized in each municipality. The Secretary or the Executive Director shall oversee the execution of the works and improvements financed with the proceeds from the sale of the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Section 10.-- The Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the determinations of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, and with the approval of the Governor, is hereby authorized to use any money appropriated under this Act, and subsequently not needed for the purposes stated herein, to carry out any other public works or improvements approved by the Legislative Assembly, pending execution and chargeable to the General Fund.

Section 11.-- The acquisition and construction of the public improvements authorized to be financed with the proceeds of the sale of bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be carried out in accordance with the plans approved by the Planning Board pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 75 of June 24, 1975, as amended [23 L.P.R.A. §§ 62 et seq.], known as the "Puerto Rico Planning Board Organic Act," and subject to the subsequent approval by the Government of Puerto Rico.

Section 12.-- The Secretary of Transportation and Public Works and the agencies and instrumentalities of the Government of Puerto Rico in charge of the programs to which the proceeds from the sale of the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be applied, are hereby authorized and empowered to acquire on behalf of the Government of Puerto Rico or on behalf of said agency or instrumentality, as the case may be, by means of gift, purchase or by exercising the power of eminent domain pursuant to the laws of Puerto Rico, any land or rights or and participation thereon and to acquire personal property or equipment deemed necessary to carry out the public improvements listed in Section 1 of this Act.

Section 13.-- The sum of eight million five hundred thousand dollars ($ 8,500,000) or any necessary part thereof or any reserve surplus necessary for the payment of interest, is hereby appropriated from the proceeds from the sale of the bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act, to be applied to the payment of the expenses incurred in connection with the bond issue and sale, including any expenses related to insurance, letters of credit or other instruments used to reduce financing costs.

Section 14.-- All bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this Act, as well as any interest thereon, shall be exempted from the payment of any tax levied by the Government of Puerto Rico and its instrumentalities.

Section 15.-- The matching of the funds appropriated with individual, state, municipal or federal funds is hereby authorized.

Section 16.-- This Act shall not be deemed to be repealing or amending any other preceding law of the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico authorizing the issue of bonds of the Government of Puerto Rico. The bonds authorized under this Act are in addition to any other previously authorized bonds of the Government of Puerto Rico.

Section 17.-- This Act shall take effect immediately after its approval.
